DMX functions

The smoke machine operates from a single DMX channel which gives proportional control of fog density from 0-100%.

DMX Level	function
0 – 12	No fog
13 – 255	Fog at variable density, (13=minimum, 255=maximum)

When the machine is receiving valid DMX data, the indicator light next to the address switches will light.